Thank you for sharing your talent with us through this audition process. It is important that every cast member be committed to the success of this show. To that end, please sign to indicate that you have read and agree to the following:

If I am given a role in this production...

1. I will make every effort to attend all rehearsals that require my attendance. I understand that excessive absences may result in my removal from the production and my role will be recast.
2. I will abide by the rules set forth by the BRTC, as well as those set by the Director and the Production Team
3. I understand that I must provide and pay for my own costume and that all costume pieces must be approved by the Costume Designer and Director.
4. PARENTS: I understand that this production is run entirely by volunteers and that parents will be expected to volunteer to fill various duties during dress rehearsals and performances.
