

Anyone's Bluff By: Marianne Hause

Characters:

- Child aged 8-14
- Two adult men
- Two adult women

Ideally the adults will be middle aged, but ages are flexible.

Synopsis:

Two couples discuss the history of Mississippi and the Mississippi River and a child sets them straight with facts.

Life at Seashore Assisted Living By: Raymond Reed

Characters:

- Ima Jean-a senior female
- Lula Belle-a senior female
- Maybelline-a senior female
 - Estelle-a senior female
 - Norene-a senior female
- Esther-female in her early 20's
- Esther's boyfriends-male in his early 20's-has no lines; just have to act or dress a certain way
 - Bill-a senior male
 - William-a male in early 20's

(The people who play the seniors do not have to be the right age, they just have to be able to make themselves look the right age.)

Brief synopsis:

This one act takes place in an assisted living home in Louisville, Mississippi.

The main characters are 5 ladies who live in the home and get together to pass the time on the slow days that come with this stage of life. The conversation is often repetitive, as it is sometimes at assisted living homes.

Visits from Esther, Maybelline's granddaughter, are highlights of their lives.

Blue Suede Heels By: Katie Jefcoat

Characters:

- Lauren Harper - age range: 20-30
the bride, early 20s, very pretty and kind, quite tall

- Holly Gervis - age range 20-30

Lauren's supportive best friend and Maid of Honor, also early 20s

- Margaret Harper - age range 40-55

Lauren's caring mother, a woman in her mid-40s

- Eunice Harper - age range 65-85, exception may be made for stellar actor
Lauren's grandmother, who prefers to be called "Auntie", a cranky old broad in her 70s

- Spencer Solomon - age range 20-30

the devoted groom, mid 20s

- Gary Harper - age range 40-55

Lauren's dad, a man in his 40s or 50s; a bit of a "momma's boy"

Synopsis:

Lauren and Spencer are getting ready for their Big Day--unless Lauren's grandmother Eunice has anything to say about it. An extremely unhappy old woman with a bone to pick, Eunice is determined to save Lauren from the heartbreak she experienced when her husband died years ago. When the wedding day finally arrives, will Eunice cause a scene, or will she finally give her blessing? Full of laughs, love and family drama, this one act has something for everyone!

The Skillet By: Paula Herrington Ishee

Characters:

- Diana - female, 25+

Diana is a spunky, take charge woman who cares deeply for her friends

- Caroline - female, 25+

Caroline is a sweet woman who has recently learned to stand up for herself

- Robert - male, 25+

Robert is Caroline's ex., manipulative and selfish, but does believe he's in love with Caroline

- Barbara - female, 55+

Barbara is nosy and eccentric, but has only the best of intentions

Synopsis:

Best friends Diana and Caroline are just trying to enjoy a fine afternoon of baking and Uno, but visits by Caroline's gas lighting ex, Robert, and Diana's nosy neighbor, Barbara, send the day off the rails.